INSTITUTE

YOUNG LEADERS CIRCLE

The Milken Institute Young Leaders Circle (YLC) includes intellectually curious, motivated, and philanthropic young professionals between the ages of 25 and 40 who support the Milken Institute and its mission.

With more than 300 members in the US, Asia, Europe, and the Middle East and Africa (MEA) region, the Young Leaders Circle represents the best and the brightest from a wide variety of industries.

YLC members are actively involved in our programs and research, and receive special invitations to private events. They are provided access to the annual Global Conference and select regional summits, where they have an opportunity to interact with global leaders from more than 60 countries.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q What is the Milken Institute?

A The Milken Institute is a nonprofit, nonpartisan think tank focused on accelerating measurable progress on the path to a meaningful life. With a focus on financial, physical, mental, and environmental health, we bring together the best ideas and innovative resourcing to develop blueprints for tackling some of our most critical global issues through the lens of what's pressing now and what's coming next.

Q What is the Milken Institute Global Conference?

A Each year, the Milken Institute convenes many of the world's most talented leaders and inspiring visionaries to actively engage in conversations that result in workable solutions to society's most pressing challenges. Held in Los Angeles each spring, Global Conference includes interactive discussions with 700 speakers in more than 200 public and private sessions that provide the audience with an exceptional experience. It draws nearly 4,000 attendees (76 percent C-suite) representing more than 60 countries, including senior executives, influential investors, government leaders, heads of institutional funds, nonprofit executives, entrepreneurs, and philanthropists. The Global Conference also offers unparalleled opportunities outside of the sessions to build new relationships and discover new ideas with our high-level audience, including a number of private events that we host.
