

MILKEN INSTITUTE GLOBAL DIALOGUES SÃO PAULO

NOVEMBER 9, 2026

Rosewood São Paulo

As Latin America's largest economy, Brazil is increasingly strengthening its position as a top investment destination for global investors. With continued growth in infrastructure, energy, and critical minerals through initiatives such as the New Growth Acceleration Program (Novo PAC), the country is expanding opportunities for regional and international investors while reinforcing its long-term competitiveness.

Building on the success of last year's Global Investors' Symposium, the Milken Institute will continue bringing CEOs, chief investment officers, institutional investors, asset managers, family office principals, founders, and public-sector leaders together to examine the forces shaping investment across Brazil and the wider Latin America region. This invitation-only event will discuss key ingredients that strengthen investor confidence, productivity, and long-term returns.

Join us at the Global Dialogues São Paulo and engage in one of Latin America's most dynamic markets to connect with global investors and business leaders shaping the next wave of growth and transformation.
